

Just 4 Dads & Dad Matters' New Dads Group

Just 4 Dads St Chads and Dad Matters are hosting a weekly group for New Dads with babies from newborn to pre-crawling stage.

It will give Dads the opportunity to bond with their baby, meet other Dads and talk about their baby and how they are responding to you, along with anything else you wish to discuss.

The session will also be open to Dads-to-be, whose partners are more than 6 months prgenant and want to find out more about how to bond with their baby and support their partner.

If this sounds like something you would like to be involved with, then come and join us every Saturday, 9:30am at:
