Preventing and reducing gambling harms in GM

Anyone can be affected by gambling harms. We can all be a part of the solution.

Gambling is often described as a hidden harm and many people experience stigma when speaking about a gambling problem. Opening a conversation with a non-judgemental question, such as "have you ever worried about your own or someone else's gambling?" will help someone feel they can talk.

Gamblers Anonymous

Regular peer support meetings held in Bolton, Bury, Wigan, Oldham, Stockport and Manchester www.gamblersanonymous.org.uk

Managing gambling

All licensed operators must offer tools such as deposit limits and time reminders. These can be activated by visiting the 'safer gambling' section of operator websites.

Customers can also change their account settings to opt-out of all marketing and promotional messages.

Blocking gambling products

To self-exclude from licensed premises customers will need to contact operators direct. Customers of some banks may also be able to block payments to gambling operators.

It may be appropriate to connect residents with services in your area who can provide holistic support to manage the wider impacts of gambling disorder:

Financial management and debt advice

Mental and physical health and wellbeing

Relationships with partners, children, parents and friends

Interaction with the criminal justice system

Social exclusion and isolation

Support getting back to work or education
