LIVE DIGITAL THEATRE ONLINE PREVIEW

A piece of live digital theatre exploring the impact of Covid-19 on young people's mental health.

Created through research and consultation with a steering group of multi-agency front-line workers; "Nothing Else" explores the effects of learning from home, virtual contact for young people in care, the rise in depression and anxiety, substance misuse and more.

"Nothing Else" is also available to book as a digital theatre & training package for front-line staff.
Enquire for pricing.
