

DEAF FIRST RESPONDER

A service in Stockport and surrounding areas supporting sign language users and frontline healthcare professionals.

Supporting prompt effective treatment in emergency situations

Contact number: 07386 660 814

Voice/FaceTime/ WhatsApp/ text

Point of contact for:

- Sign language users (British Sign Language and Sign Supported English)
 - Frontline healthcare providers - paramedics, A&E staff, anyone supporting a Deaf person in an emergency.
-
- Support to facilitate communication with a sign language user
 - Deaf awareness information to help you support the deaf person – tips and do's and don'ts
 - In person attendance if needed – to support the deaf person - help to book a sign language interpreter so nursing and medical staff can communicate effectively and improve patient outcomes
 - Provide an information pack with, contact numbers for the contracted interpreter agency, flash cards etc
 - Follow up with local services to ensure ongoing support for the deaf person.

Deaf First Responder is a project of Walthew House, registered charity: 1167749, registered company 09306241. For further information contact: 0161 480 2612

admin@walthewhouse.org.uk

Poster service provider