DIABETIC EYE SCREENING

Diabetes can damage your vision or lead to blindness. Diabetic eye disease often has no symptoms until it's advanced.

With early detection and treatment this can be prevented.

Free diabetic screening for people living with diabetes

Diabetic eye screening is not the same as your regular sight test at your Opticians which you should still attend. The examination includes eye drops to dilate your pupils and digital photographs will be taken of the back of your eyes (the retina). These photographs are reviewed by accredited specialists.
