SUPPORTING EX-OFFENDERS

Are you looking to make a change in your life? Step Together supports people with convictions to change their lives through community volunteering. The right volunteering opportunity can help you to:

- develop new skills, gain references and valuable work experience
  - increase self-confidence, self-belief and motivation
  - develop new social networks and friendships
  - find a meaningful role in the community
- identify new possibilities and build a more positive future

THE RIGHT LEVEL OF SUPPORT TO HELP YOU VOLUNTEER

We pride ourselves on being able to find volunteer placements that meet your interests – this could be sport coaching, fixing bikes, catering or working with animals. It may be helping at a community café, acting as a hospital DJ, providing casework support at non-profit law firms or working with troubled young people. There is an interesting opportunity to suit all interests and our role is to find the one that works best for you.

We help you overcome barriers to employment with our tailored “For My Future” training programme. Our course aims to overcome the barriers ex-offenders face in finding work and comprises 20 hours of guided learning, one to one mentoring and home learning, CV and interview techniques and a plan to get our clients into volunteering within their community. To establish eligibility and to book a place, please contact our Volunteer Project Manager as below.

Get one-to-one support to help you:

- identify roles that suit your skills
- complete applications
- find the right opportunity

We can prepare you for interviews and go with you to initial sessions or induction days. We can also provide you with ongoing support throughout your placement.
